

Eco-Friendly Features for Selected Mobile Phones

Mobile Model	Certified or Alliances	Housing and Engine	Disposal	Battery and Charger	Harmful Substance	Other Features
Motorola W233 Renew (launched)	Certified Carbonfree  Carbonfund.org	100% recyclable housing, made from recycled materials	Postage-paid recycling envelope; 'take-back program'	No hazardous material in battery; charger standby power rate equal or less than 0.1watts	Absent and decreased harmful substances	Manuals and packaging are recyclable; marked with international recycling logos
Sony Ericsson GreenHeart (Concept)	Greenpeace	Bio-plastic, recycled plastic keypads	Global collection points for recycling	3.5mW standby power	Phase out of unwanted substances	HTML based e-manuals; game style educational application "Ecomate"; eco-conscious packaging
Nokia Remade (Concept)		Made from recycled materials		No-waste charger, energy saving graphics,	Cleaner engine with non-toxic electronics performance chips
Samsung Blue Earth (to be launched late 2009)		Made of recycled water bottles		Solar powered (10-14 hrs charge = 4 hours talk time); charger less than 0.03W standby	Free from harmful substances	Energy efficient bluetooth mode; control over screen brightness and backlight duration; 'ecowalk' pedometer to calculate CO2 emission reduction